NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. THIS NOTICE EXPLAINS THAT YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE A SETTLEMENT PAYMENT.
THIS IS NOT A NOTICE OF A LAWSUIT AGAINST YOU.

Why did I get this notice?

This is a notice of a proposed settlement in a class action lawsuit against NCO Financial Systems, Inc., NCO Customer Management, Inc. and NCO Group, Inc. (collectively NCO). The settlement would resolve a lawsuit brought on behalf of the following persons: (1) All United States residents who applied for employment with NCO, or were employed with NCO, and were the subject of a background check between January 14, 2007 and January 14, 2009 ("Subclass 1 Members"); and (2) all of these persons who received a letter stating that their application process or employment could be affected because of negative information in the background check ("Subclass 2 Members"). You have received this notice because records indicate that you are a member of this first group. Your legal rights will be affected by the settlement of this lawsuit.

Please read this notice carefully. It explains the lawsuit, the settlement, and your legal rights, including the process for receiving a settlement check, excluding yourself from the settlement, or objecting to the settlement.

SUMMARY OF OPTIONS:

YOU HAVE FOUR OPTIONS.

1. DO NOTHING: If you do nothing, you will be releasing your claims, but receiving no money.
2. SUBMIT A CLAIM: If you submit the claims form attached to this notice or at www.NCOFCRASettlement.com, if the settlement is approved, a check will be mailed to you.
3. OBJECT: If you wish to object to this settlement, you must follow the procedures detailed below.

4. EXCLUDE: If you do not want to claim any money, but do not want to be included in the case, you must submit an “Opt Out” form electronically at www.NCOFCRASettlement.com or mail a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator as detailed below.

What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit was filed on January 14, 2009, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. The plaintiff, Alisia Daily, claims that NCO violated the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. in 2 ways. First, plaintiff claims that NCO failed to provide disclosures required by the FCRA before procuring a consumer report (background check). Second, plaintiff claims that NCO failed to provide a copy of the report and other required information before denying some applicants a job or terminating employment.

NCO denies that it violated any law or regulation.

Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people, called “Class Representatives” (in this case Ms. Daily), sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people together are a “Class” or “Class Members.” Because some Class Members only meet one of the prongs of the Class Definition, the Class has been divided into “Subclasses.” The settlement provides different forms of relief for the 2 different “Subclass Members.” The Court resolves the issues for all Class Members and Subclass Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

Why is there a settlement?

The plaintiff and NCO have agreed to settle the lawsuit to avoid the time, risk, and expense of defending the lawsuit and to achieve a final resolution of the claims. Under the proposed settlement, Class Members will have the opportunity to obtain a payment in exchange for giving up certain legal rights. The Class Representative and the attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

How do I know if my claims are included in the settlement?

You received this notice because NCO’s records identified you as a member of Subclass 1. That means you fit the description of a Subclass 1 Member, which the Court certified for this settlement. Subclass 1 consists of all United States residents who applied for employment with NCO, or were employed with NCO, and were the subject of a background check where a “consumer report” as defined by the FCRA was obtained between January 14, 2007 and January 14, 2009.

What does the settlement provide?

In this case, there are approximately 38,040 members in Subclass 1. NCO has agreed to contribute $743,850 into a Settlement Fund for the cash settlement payments to Subclass 1 Members. Depending upon the number of individuals that claim-in, NCO will pay Subclass 1 Members that claim-in a check of up to $180. Assuming a 15% claim-in rate, each class member will receive a check for approximately $130.36.

Subject to the Court’s approval, NCO will pay $480,150 for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses, which constitutes 27.5% of the total settlement value. NCO has agreed to pay the costs associated with the administration of the settlement. To the extent there are funds remaining in the Class Settlement Fund after the claim-in process, those funds will first be used to pay for NCO’s administration and notice costs up to $100,000. Any remaining funds will be donated to a cy pres recipient, which will be chosen by Class Counsel, subject to reasonable rejection by NCO and approval by the Court.

How much will I be paid?

Depending upon the number of individuals that claim-in, NCO will pay each Subclass 1 Member that claims-in a check up to $180. Assuming a 15% claim-in rate, you can expect to receive a check for approximately $130.36.

How was the amount of my payment determined?

A federal court magistrate judge acted as a neutral mediator and helped the parties settle the case. After evaluating the costs, risks, and delays the parties would have encountered bringing this case to trial, the parties arrived at the settlement amounts.

Unlike many class action settlements, the payment you are entitled to receive will not be reduced by attorney's fees, costs, or expenses, which NCO has agreed to pay separately from the settlement payments. Class Counsel first obtained the class settlement, and only negotiated the amount of attorney's fees, costs, and expenses that NCO would pay after the class settlement was agreed-upon. This attorney's fees negotiation was also facilitated by the magistrate judge.

How can I get a payment?

To qualify for a Subclass 1 payment, you must return a signed and completed Claim Form by May 5, 2011. The Claim Form is enclosed with this notice.

You may also submit the Claim Form at www.NCOFCRASettlement.com.

If you do not return the completed Claim-In Form timely, you will not receive a settlement payment.

When will I be paid?

If the Court approves the settlement, you will be paid as soon as possible after the Court order becomes final. If there is an appeal of the settlement, payment may be delayed.

What rights am I giving up in this settlement?

Unless you exclude yourself from this settlement, you will be considered a member of the Class, which means you give up your right to sue or continue a lawsuit against NCO regarding the legal issues that were raised or could have been raised in this case. Giving up your legal claims is called a release. Unless you formally exclude yourself from this settlement, you will release your claims whether or not you submit a Claim-In Form and receive a settlement payment.

The released parties collectively include NCO Financial Systems, Inc., NCO Customer Management, Inc., NCO Group, Inc. and their agents, servants, and attorneys. You will be releasing these parties from all claims relating to NCO's employment background check process.

For more information on the release, released parties, and released claims, you may obtain a copy of the Settlement Agreement from the Court at the address below, at 877-839-1550, or www.NCOFCRASettlement.com.

Can I exclude myself from the settlement?

You may exclude yourself from the settlement. If you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will not receive any payment from NCO, but you will retain the right to sue NCO separately, at your own expense, for any claims you might have.

How do I exclude myself from the settlement?

If you wish to be excluded, you must submit an “Opt Out” form electronically at www.NCOFCRASettlement.com or mail a written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator at:

First Class, Inc. / J11214-Daily
5410 W. Roosevelt Rd., Ste. 222
Chicago, IL 60644-1479

Your request for exclusion must be in writing and submitted electronically or postmarked on or before May 5, 2011. The request must state: “I do not want to be part of the Class in Daily v. NCO Financial Systems, Inc., et al., Case No. 3:09-CV-031.” The request should be signed, with your name, address, and telephone number printed below your signature. The address you use should be the address to which this notice was mailed, so that you can be properly identified.

When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing on May 19, 2011, at 2:00 P.M. The hearing will be held in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Virginia, Lewis F. Powell, Jr. US Courthouse, 701 East Broad Street, Richmond, VA 23219. At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will hear objections to the settlement, if any.

After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long the Court will take to make its decision. In addition, the hearing may be continued at any time by the Court without further notice to you.

Do I have to attend the hearing?

No. You are not required to attend the hearing. But you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense, and you may ask the Court’s permission to speak. To do so, you must send a letter stating that it is your intention to appear in Daily v. NCO Financial Systems, Inc., et al. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and signature. Your letter stating your intention to appear must be received no later than May 5, 2011, and be sent to the Clerk of Court, Class Counsel, and Defense Counsel at the addresses below.

You cannot speak at the hearing if you have excluded yourself from the settlement. Once you have excluded yourself, the settlement does not affect your legal rights.

What if I want to object to the settlement?

If you have not excluded yourself from the settlement, you can object to the settlement if you do not believe it is fair or reasonable. If you wish to object, you must write a letter to the Court stating the specific reason for your objection, and describe any evidence you wish to introduce to support your objection. Please include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. Your letter must be mailed to all of the locations listed below, postmarked by May 5, 2011. You may combine your objection with a letter stating your intention to appear.

What if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will get no money from the settlement. Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will not be able to sue or continue a lawsuit against the released parties regarding the legal issues in this case.

What will happen if the Court does not approve the settlement?

If the Court does not approve the settlement, or if it approves the settlement and the approval is reversed on appeal, or if the settlement does not become final for some other reason, you will not be paid at this time and the case will continue. The parties may negotiate a different settlement or the case may go to trial.
